

2 Day Blasting & Painting Competency Assessment In Accordance with the OPITO Standard

Overview

The course is designed for experienced candidates who are actively involved in Blasting & Painting. The candidates will be assessed against the OPITO competence standard, should actual training in this discipline be required a candidate should attend our OPITO trainee course. Successful achievement of this course will depend on demonstrating a good level of relevant health & safety knowledge and practical ability to paint, blast and spray to a recognised standard.

Structure

The course is a mixture of theory and practical sessions. Assessment by means of multiple-choice question papers and observation reports.

Content

The candidates will be expected to demonstrate a good working knowledge of:

Theory

Blasting & painting legislation. Covering COSHH, MSDS manual handling, environmental, working at height and compressor awareness.

Practical

Identification of equipment. Setting up of equipment. Proper use of equipment Blasting test piece. Painting test piece. Environmental checks. Fault finding. Correct PPE.

Additional independent assessment by a leading coatings company.

Duration:

2 Days

Venue:

BIS Skills Centre

Certification:

BIS Salamis Certificate

Items to bring:

Safety boots.

Prerequisites:

Experienced Blaster /Painter.

Assessment

Delegates complete a series of practical and classroom training assessments.

